CA-1M Chapter Directors

The after-meeting ride in March, Carlos Vasquez, led his first ride. We had 11 bikes and 1 car ending up at the Train Museum in Paris. We even had Jim and Suzanne Back meet us halfway and followed us to the Museum. March 20th seven of us rode down to Chapter F's Rally in Potrero, near the Mexico border. I led the ride leaving from location 2 at 6 AM and making two more comfort stops getting there at 9:00. Even after that several people went on the hour ride that they had set up. A lot of nice twisties in that area. The last Rally I went to was Chapter F's Rally, last year. It was nice to see friends I have not seen in a while.

Our Meeting in May will be moved up to May 2nd instead of the 9th since this is Mother's Day and The Pepper Steak Restaurant has asked us to move it.

According to what I have been told, Chapter M started in March of 1981. Which means this is our 40th year. I would like to put together a list of past CD's and when they served plus old pictures of the Chapter as memorial of the Chapter. If you have old group pictures and can make copies to send me, that would be great. Also, if you have a list of CD's that would be great also. We have been wanting to put on a pot-luck get together to invite all past members before they are no longer with us. We had planned one last January 2020, but plans fell through. Then Covid hit us. Maybe this year if things open up.

Be sure to thank our ride leaders for putting on the rides that they lead. It is no easy task.

Chapter CA-1 F Rally

CA-1M February 28 Desert ride! Thanks for Joining Us / Multi-Chapter FUN
9 bikes, 4 trikes & one "cage" enjoyed the ride!

Four CA-1M members (Bob, Carlos, Nick & Russ) were joined by Mike Rand, CD of CA-1V, and started the ride in Riverside and headed South on Hwy 15 to Temecula to pick up other riders. Riding the freeway is no fun, but encountering an accident adds to the pain! A large truck and a car carrier collided and distributed wreckage all over the road / hence, our dreaded "splitting lanes" for several miles was required. We joined with Bear, Ken & Gwen, Fred and Randy prior to riding out on Hwy79 (defined by SC-MA as a top 15 road for 2021). KSU at 10:10 AM to begin the FUN.

We were at the 1st stoplight when who should appear? Four Trikes from CA-1C / Sherman & Dorie Jared, Terry & Allison Cooke, Pat Russell, and John Proud = welcome to the ride.

Once past the stop lights in Temecula we enjoyed the gentle sweepers and curves of Hwy79 and turning on San Felipe Road (2) and then drop down to Borrego Springs on 22 for some fun mountain riding. The lunch choice was either a picnic, or a restaurant (1C was prepared for a nice picnic and 1M chose Carmelita's), both options were enjoyable, but unfortunately separate. We did have a nice chance for introductions at the mountain overlook above the valley floor.

Members picked return options that best suited their schedule: 1M dropped down to Hwy 78 and headed towards Julian / lots of great scenery & roads; we skirted Julian via the twisty Wynola road to avoid the Julian crowds. We had the mandatory comfort stop at Dudley's Bakery before riding back to Hwy 15 via Hwy 76.

Many members were concerned about the winds that day – we never experienced any safety/distressful issues for our riding, and the picnic group focused on a "wind free area" for lunch (a strong breeze makes it safer for COVID!). A sunny beautiful warm day to be sharing the road with friends! FUN with Friends – see you on the next adventure.

3-2: Multi-Chapter Rides: 1V (Retired Riders) & 1M
 While Mike Rand (CD 1V) was on the 1M ride Sunday 2-28, he invited members to join his Retired Riders Group on Tuesday: Shared Smiles = Jim Albin led 5 more bikes on a 200-mile joy ride through canyons and valleys from Phelan to Castaic Lake with a picnic lunch overlooking the lake. My Thanks to Jim – Mike – Buddy & Dave for sharing the day with me.

It was the first time on a ride that Yellow Wings outnumbered Red Wings – with a Gold Wing for variety. After joking around I decided this should have been labeled the “Hot Dog Ride” = we had 3 Mustard – 2 Ketchup & 1 Grey Poupon.

FUN

Too Much FUN!

Chapter Rallies have Returned: & Also

Congrats to CA-1F for all the FUN (3-20-2021)
 6 Bikes & 1 Cage journeyed to Potrero Community Center for a Fun 1F Rally on Saturday: Jerry was Road Captain followed by LeRoy, Carlos, Randy, Norm, Russ, and a "Bear in a Cage". Several other active 1M Chapter teammates rode down with 1Q: Roger and Bob M rounded out a great M crew. The rally drew a great crowd: 40 +/- Wings with about 100 people attending.

The chapter guided ride went East on Hwy 94 to the Golden Acorn Casino where some members took turns on the $.01 slot machine (really $.01), and there were Winners. 16 Wings took advantage of the ride to enjoy the wonderful weather & roads / thank you 1F for leading a great ride.

The lasagna lunch was tasty with some nice chocolate desert pieces! The chapter presented patches, buckles, & pins from retired members that were special & free for the taking. Russ picked a “Vietnam War Veteran Commemorative Pin” that really needed a new home, and Carlos picked a “Blue Knight” pin that was special.

LeRoy was the luckiest M member for the raffle drawings with 3 wins – ask him what he did with the “wonder lights” he won. Russ was suspicious about his lone winning: “Vanilla Monkey Nuts” by Motorcycle Monkey / he was assured it was really great coffee (he had concerns it may be related to Rocky Mountain Oysters!). Norm participated in the silent auction and was rewarded with a $2 leather "dress suit carrier" that snaps into a motorcycle trailer – Norm is ready to dress for success - on any ride!

The only sad note from the ride: the Barrett’s Junction fish restaurant is out of business! Another small business disappears: A COVID death. A favorite ride is now committed only to memory!

FUN with Friends – you can’t enjoy unless you participate! See Ya on the Next Ride

$40

Jerry, please feel free to send this info to all our chapter and to all chapters in the GWRR across our nation.

To all, for years now, I have been looking for an alternative to prevent spending $900.00 to $1500.00 for a Honda Goldwing CB radio.

Thanks to Sena technologies I found a way. Yet it may not be for all. However, with this set up using the Sena 20s Evo and above you can use bluetooth communication up to nine riders, listen to your music, gps and being able to hear and speak via CB radio.

For Honda Goldwings 2018 plus, you have to be ok not using the Apple CarPlay. Unfortunately Apple CarPlay interferes with the CB radio.

You must be willing to have the Sena unit attached to your helmets with inside speakers and microphone.

Also there are 3 other components that you will have to buy to be able to have this set up.

These Sena products can also bought at WWW.Sena.com

APRIL ANNIVERSARIES

Suzanne & Jim 22nd

After Gathering Ride: Looking for FUN / Found it!

A great group of 11 bikes and a cage left for another back road ride: Carlos volunteered to be Road Captain and he was followed by Russ, Mac, Nick, Gary, Roger, Mike Rand & Jim Albin from CA-1V, Tom Del Mar, Tom Kelly, Jerry as Tail Gunner, and "Bear in a Cage". Special note: we picked Jim & Suzanne Back in their truck along the ride – what a pleasant surprise!

We had a great back road 76.2-mile ride to the RR Museum in Perris, with a newly re-opened venue that we had pretty much to ourselves. The employees were incredibly pleased to see visitors return to the museum after the long lock-down and played special attention to share knowledge with the group.

Not all the displays were open, but several provided great views of history: maintenance trucks converted to work on the rails, Chloe the locomotive, and the "turn table" that was used in San Luis Obispo exceedingly early last century! Who did they have to push that turntable – really big guys?

Continuing with GWRRA riding "Tradition", we stopped for lunch and had a very tasty meal at a Mexican Restaurant in Perris – a genuinely nice terrace to eat outside as a group, so we could be safe! See ya on the next ride! (San Diego Chapter
