Ramblings

As some of you have heard Barbara Tait has stepped down as Chapter Director effective immediately. We wish her well in her future endeavors and opportunities. I would like to thank Barb for her support this past year and am looking forward to her participation in the future. With that being said, Denise and I will be handling her duties for the rest of the year.

Have you been riding lately? Would you like to share your adventures? Well here is an opportunity to share. We would like to share your stories with the chapter by inviting each one of you to write an article to be published in our newsletter. We cannot put them all in every month but if you want to explore your writing abilities send them to me at trere9@aol.com or trent127@juno.com, and we will start a database of your articles to be included in upcoming editions.

By the time you receive this newsletter CA1F will have its poker run done, the Arizona District Convention will have been done and then CA1C poker run will be the next poker ride on the horizon. Be sure and mark your calendars for these rides. Let us show our support for our extended family.

We are also working hard on our Christmas Party and we should have a site for Dec 6th. We will announce details in a mass email as soon as the details are made. We will be having a signup sheet at our Nov. meeting so we can get an accurate count for the facility.

Thanksgiving is coming up as well and knows that everyone will be making plans to be with family, and Denise and I would like to wish everyone a very happy Thanksgiving and be safe while you are traveling. You are all in our thoughts.

Thanksgiving

Every year I prattle on about how fall is my favorite time of the year and this year is no exception. Last month we got to enjoy the turning of the leaves as we partied with the Frogs of CA-2N in Sonora. The following week, we had the honor of installing Crystal Richardson as the new Co-Chapter Director of CA-1F at their annual event. The final weekend of October found us in Tucson enjoying the best that Arizona has to offer. All told, we traveled over 2,000 miles and loved every one of them! This month, we have our final rally of the year with the Coyotes of CA-1C and, hopefully, we will see all of you there!

With Thanksgiving just a few weeks away, we are faced with the opportunity to reflect upon the things the way are most thankful for and the first thing comes to mind is the ability to share all of the travels with my wife and best friend. A year ago, I underwent surgery on my right ankle and my leg has not been strong enough to ride two-up this year. Despite rehabbing this injury, one if not both of us, we were able to attend every Chapter Rally, the California Operations Meeting, the southern California Horizon's Training class, the California and Arizona District Rallies, the Region F Rally, and Wing Ding in Madison, Wisconsin.

From the Oregon border to the Mexican border and from the Pacific Ocean to the Dells of Wisconsin, we travelled over 15,000 miles just attending GWRRA events and the friends we got to spend time with and the memories we made are definitely things Princess and I are thankful for. Having spent more weekends away than at home this year, we are thankful to spend a few weekends with our dogs at home and, come Thanksgiving Day, the two of us, our dogs, and our children will be gathered around the table together to celebrate Thanksgiving as a family. Regardless of whether you are spending the holiday with family members or riding with your GWRRA family or doing something altogether different, we hope you will take at least a few minutes to reflect on whatever things you are thankful for this year. Until next month, ride well and ride often.

Boy, where is the time going, it is already November. Last month the highlight was the bbq at Larry and Sheree Tegel's home. We had a great turnout and a lot of fun, socializing and eating good food. What else can you ask for!!!!

As I am writing this I am looking forward to the Barrett Junction ride that Larry T. is leading. I'm hoping for a good turnout, and the fact that Larry is leading I am sure we will have a great ride; I will let you all know the details in the next newsletter.

As always, the ride leaders are important and thanks to those of you that have stepped up to the plate to lead the rides, you are appreciated.

Our turnouts for the rides are getting better and November will be a great month. Keep checking your e-mails for the upcoming special ride events.

How about our Rally? Great fun and good times had by all. Thanks to all who participated and helped to make it a great success.

Lets talk about RENO!!!!

I am taking a weeks vacation, Sunday to Sunday. June 14- 21, 2015, we've already booked our rooms at The Grand Sierra Resort starting on the 15th of June through the 20th. If you plan on going to Reno you should book your rooms now. We still need to book a room for one night near Angel Camp, on June 14, 2014. We are still in the planning stage.

Who wants to go with us?

COME ON lets go ride RENO!!!!

A note: from your tour director.

Each and every of you bring a special shine to this Chapter, your individuality and presence is what makes CA1M, so special!!!!!!

LETS RIDE

RIDER ED 'GIMME 5'

TOPIC: Do You Ride with the Right Attitude?

When you decide to take your motorcycle out for a ride, what are you thinking about? Where is your attention? Are you thinking about the things you will be doing when you get to work? Is your mind playing with the words you could have said, or should have said, in the debate with your boss or your spouse earlier in the day? In short, where is your head at when you saddle up? Each and every time you throw a leg over your motorcycle it matters what you are thinking about. Whether you are simply commuting to work on your motorcycle to reduce fuel costs, or you are heading out on a week-long vacation on two-wheels, your mental attitude plays a big role in how safe you will be on the road, and how much you will enjoy the ride.

Riding a motorcycle is an activity that is 80% to 90% mental while the rest is physical. When you are thinking about the job on your way to work, or going over the list of errands you need to complete, or just letting your mind drift as you idle down to the end of your driveway, your level of safety is reduced. You need to shift your attitude and focus only on the ride to insure an incident free trip.

So how do you make the shift from thinking about daily issues to the ride at hand? Establish a routine that you will go through before every ride. Start by evaluating the condition of your motorcycle as you walk up to it. Do a mental T-CLOCS. Look at the tires as you approach (inflated, tread, visible damage). Are there any oily or wet spots on the ground under your bike (where did it come from, is it safe to ride)? And try to be conservative when you answer these questions to yourself. Keep your eyes open for anything amiss. Then, if everything looks okay, gear up. (Of course, you should do a physical T-CLOCS regularly, too, especially before starting a long ride! This means getting down on the ground, spinning and looking at your tire tread for nails/screws. Then check pressures and top-off if needed)

"Out on I-40, two friends and I hit the asphalt at 70 mph. You never forget something like that. You also never forget those who were there to help- to genuinely help. The honest and tireless legal support that Steve Schapiro and Stan Leventhal dedicated to us was powerful. But even stronger was their sincere understanding of this lifestyle- and of its importance. That is what really kept us going. That is what truly restored us." Bill Hayes, Boozefighter's National Publicity Officer, and former client.

Next step, finish donning your protective outer layer. Most of us put on our gear in the same sequence every time. Long pants and boots are usually put on in the house. Out at the bike, your jacket, helmet, eye protection, and gloves complete the process. Consider the weather and make sure you have packed any other gear you may need before the ride is over.

Put the key in the ignition and start the bike. While the engine warms, check the fuel level. Determine how far you will be able to go before you need to stop for a fill-up. Do you know the route you plan to take? Do you have all the necessary information with you to get you where you want to go? Good.

With those aspects considered, you are ready to focus on the journey. Now, when you shift your bike into gear, shift your brain into “active rider mode” because nothing else matters now except your safety. All your thoughts should be about the ride you are beginning. Your eyes should be active and scanning your surroundings - aggressively! Look for potential hazards that might cause you to change your speed (by braking or accelerating), to change direction (by swerving or turning), or to communicate to other road users. A wave of the hand, a flash of your high beams, or a toot of your horn tells others that you are there. Make sure they are aware of you, if you cannot see their eyes in their mirrors, they CANNOT SEE YOU.

All the while your mind should be translating the inputs from your eyes and ears into pictures of things that might happen next. Evaluate in your mind what your response would be to each of the possibilities. When a hazard comes up, keep your options open until you have to choose one – the best one – the one that lets you avoid the hazard safely and without any drama. This is riding with the right attitude - the attitude that your job is to ride safely until you park your bike and remove the key from the ignition. Develop a routine like this for yourself and every ride you take will be a safer and more pleasing ride.
